

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

In this chapter the researcher would like to present the conclusion and suggestion based on the result of the research that has been explained in the research findings and discussion in the previous chapter.

5.1 Conclusion

The purpose of the research is to figure out students' perceptions on use of Grammarly application to improve students' academic writing. The respondents were selected based on specific criteria. After analyzing the data, based on the result of the research, it concluded that most students strongly agree that Grammarly application helps them in correcting their academic writing. It was explained for first question, which are the students' perceptions on the use of Grammarly application in writing skill.

In addition, the second research question explained the strengths and weaknesses of Grammarly application. There were four strengths, which were easy to access, the helpful feedback, a high rate of evaluation speed, and detecting plagiarism. Moreover, there were four weaknesses of this application which were misleading feedback, over-checking on references, pricey for the premium version, and making students lazy.

5.2 Suggestion

The researcher hopes that the findings of this study will be useful to the readers. Therefore, based on some findings in the previous chapter, it is important to get some beneficial suggestions for students, lectures, and future researchers.

1. The Students

The researcher hopes Grammarly application can help in students' academic writing. The Grammarly application is beneficial as a grammar checker to detect grammatical and other writing errors. For students who are confused with grammatical mistakes in writing, Grammarly application is highly recommended.

2. The Lecturers

The researcher expects that the findings will be a good option for lecturers to choose Grammarly application. The lecturers can use it to help them to check the students' assignments in writing.

3. The Next Researchers

For the next researchers who are interested in similar topic, the researcher suggests that they can investigate more widely the students' perceptions about Grammarly application and can investigate more specific in type of writing.
