

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

5.1 Conclusion

After getting research and giving test for 30 students, the researcher concluded that “An Analysis of The Tenth Grade Students’ Pronunciation Ability at MAN 2 Tapanuli Tengah” as follow:

1. The students’ pronunciation ability of tenth grades MAN 2 Tapanuli Tengah was 30%. So, the researcher concluded students’ pronunciation ability at MAN 2 Tapanuli Tengah was “Low”. The students also difficulties in pronouncing diphthongs [eə] [iə] [uə] [ei] [ai] [o] and triphthongs [eiə] [ɔiə] [oɪə]. In addition, some difficulties in pronouncing vowels [u] [ɛ] and consonants [ɔ:] [u:].
2. Types of mistakes in pronunciation, inaccuracy in pronouncing the words diphthong and triphthong; unable to distinguish vowels, consonants, diphthongs and triphthongs; lack of practice in pronouncing words; not serious in the practice of pronouncing words; and the influence of mother tongue which causes difficulty in pronouncing words.
3. The reason students are not able to distinguish one or more words whose similar pronunciation is because sometimes students pronounce the word the same that written of the word, Students have different hearing sensitivities and it may possibly cause problems, the problem of knowing and remembering, and we know that if we want to pronounce fluently, of course, we have to often practice pronouncing some English words that have almost the same pronunciation so that we can distinguish how to pronounce them correctly and smoothly. The ability to pronounce a whole series of sounds (groups or sounds) easily and quickly.

5.2 Suggestion

Based on the conclusion above, researcher gave some suggestion as follow:

1. To the students at tenth grade MAN 2 Tapanuli Tengah must more active in English subject such doing many pronunciation practices, more learn about English pronunciation, and serious when studying English.
2. To all the students' they have to increase their abilities in pronunciation especially in pronouncing words about diphthong and triphthong be study by hard. By listening English song or English movie. So, it can help them to improve their pronunciation.

3. To the English teacher

Teachers who teach English lessons will get information and explanations about the pronunciation abilities of tenth graders, especially in the process of learning English, and can help improve students' pronunciation skills so that they can be even better.
