

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

A. Conclusion

Based on the results of the study, it can be concluded that the influence of learning English itself through YouTube in learning English at MTsN 2 Labuhan Batu Selatan, especially class 8, turns out to have a significant influence and it can be stated that the Lai and Gu theory used in this study is very relevant to answer the two problems in this study. And based on the results, it was found that 6 categories were influenced by 1) Goal Commitment which the researchers found 41% of students agreed. 2) Affective researchers 44%. 3) Resources that the researchers get 37%. 4) Meta Cognitive that researchers got as much as 42%. 5) Social that gets 40%. And 6) Culture that researchers got 58%.

And it can be stated that YouTube is a resource that students use in the process of learning English outside the classroom. And YouTube can help students in independent English, learning English through YouTube can improve students' ability to learn English, because by watching YouTube students can choose sources based on students' own abilities, because everyone has different abilities. Therefore, students can choose keywords based on students' abilities.

B. Suggestion

Based on the conclusions above, the researcher proposes several suggestions that can be useful for further research. Self-learning through YouTube as a medium for learning English is an effective way to improve the learning ability itself for some readers who believe that learning from YouTube itself is not better than learning from teachers, but it doesn't end there. In this thesis, it turns out that readers can get new knowledge and new views about self-learning through YouTube which shows the results that self-learning through YouTube is the right alternative media as a source of interesting material and can help students learn outside the classroom. The researcher also recommends, in particular, the next researcher, who will continue to dig deeper into self-learning theory, especially the YouTube media. Especially in categorizing and interpreting each of its categories, therefore the researcher hopes that this thesis can be used as a reference for further research that will conduct research on the same topic in terms of fulfilling the research.
