1. Podcast Meeting

Section 1 - "Susan, this is Paul" – introducing your friends

Ravi: Hello, and welcome to LearnEnglish elementary podcast number one. My name's Ravi...

Tess: ... and I'm Tess. We're your presenters and we've got lots of things for you to listen to today, but before we start, I think we should introduce ourselves. Ravi?

Ravi: OK ... erm ... I'm Ravi.

Tess: Or, I tell you what, I'll introduce you and you can introduce me. How about that?

Ravi: Well, OK then. Erm, this is Tess. She's from London. She's ... how old are you?

Tess: None of your business, Ravi!

Ravi: And she loves dancing and riding her mountain bike. OK?

Tess: OK. And this is Ravi. He comes from Manchester. He's 23. Oh ... aren't you?

Ravi: Oh yes.

Tess: He likes football, and ... he's a great cook.

Ravi: Thanks! And there's one more person for you to meet. I'd like to introduce our producer, Gordon. Say hello to everyone Gordon!

Gordon: Hello! Pleased to meet you!

Ravi and Tess: Hi Gordon

Tess: And how are you today?

Gordon: Very well thank you Tess.

Section 2: I'd like to meet

Tess: Good! We'll speak to Gordon again later in the show but now it's time to get on with our programme. We've got an excellent show for you today, and let's start with our first section, called 'I'd like to meet'. We ask people a simple question – which famous person, dead or alive would you like to meet? And of course, we ask them to explain why. Our guest today on 'I'd like to meet' is Zara Heller from Bristol. Hello Zara and welcome to the show.

Zara: Hello.

Ravi: Hi Zara.

Tess: And what do you do Zara?

Zara: I'm a student, I'm in my last year at school, I'm 16.

Tess: Right. Now let's ask the question. So Zara, which famous person, dead or alive would you like to meet?

Zara: I'd like to meet Angelina Jolie.

Ravi: Angelina Jolie. Great - good choice! Tell us a bit about her.

Zara: She's an American film actress, she was in 'Tomb Raider', and she's an ambassador for the United Nations too.

Tess: And why did you choose her to talk about today?

Zara: Well, because I really admire her. She's a famous film star with a lot of money and a famous celebrity film star husband, but she really cares about helping people and she uses her money and her fame to help children and people who are very poor or have a difficult life. I saw a film about her on MTV the music channel – it was a video diary of her visiting Africa and talking about how to stop poverty, and they were really simple things, and I thought it was really cool because MTV doesn't usually show programmes like that, it's usually just music videos and things, but because she's famous and beautiful then people want to see her so she can get a lot of attention for the things that she wants to change.

Tess: Do you like her films? Do you think she's a good actress?

Zara: Yes I do. I don't think she's a great actress, but she's a good actress, and she's so beautiful that you just want to look at her all the time.

Ravi: Yeah.

Zara: I think she's one of the most beautiful women in the world. I love watching her, I love all her films.

Ravi: And what would you like to talk to her about Zara?

Zara: I'd like to talk about her trips to different places all around the world, and about Hollywood, and her family and about what people like me can do to help poor children.

Tess: Well thank you very much Zara. That was really interesting. Personally, I'd like to talk to her about her husband, Brad Pitt. I think he's gorgeous.

Ravi: OK Tess, calm down. Erm, for all of you listening, we'd like to hear from you. Which famous person, dead or alive, would you like to meet? And why?

Section 3: Quiz

Tess: OK. Now it's quiz time. Every week we'll have a little quiz to get you thinking. This week it's the ten second quiz. It's very easy. We give you a topic and you give as many answers as you can - in 10 seconds. Our two players today are Daniel – Daniel's 16 and comes from London. Hello Daniel.

Daniel: Hi

Tess: And Alice – Alice is also 16 and she comes from Liverpool. Hi Alice.

Alice: Hello

Tess: Do you both know what to do? OK. We give you a topic, and you have to write down all the words you can think of. For example, we say 'bathroom', and you write a list, bath, soap, shampoo, and so on. As quick as you can. Got the idea?

Alice: Yeah

Tess: Good. Okay. Let's play. You've got ten seconds to write down ... things you can find in a kitchen. OK? So, for example you could say 'microwave oven'. OK? Things you can find in a kitchen. Go! (sound of clock ticking) OK, Daniel. How many?

Daniel: Erm, five, Tess.

Tess: How about you, Alice?

Alice: Erm, seven, I think.

Tess: OK, let's hear your seven words, Alice. Things you find in a kitchen.

Alice: Erm, fridge. Cooker. Pans. Plates. Knife, fork, spoon.

Tess: That's seven. Well done, Alice. How many did you get, Ravi?

Ravi: Oh, the clock makes me nervous – I can't think when the clock's ticking like that. Maybe the question next week will be about football.

Tess: Thanks Daniel, thanks Alice. And if any of you listening have a good game we can play in quiz time, write to us and let us know.

Section 4: Our person in...

Ravi: The next part of the show is called 'Our person in'. We'll listen to people in interesting places all over the world telling us something about life in the country they're in. Today, we'll hear from Mike Southern. Mike is ... Our man in New York.

Mike: New York. What do you think of? Skyscrapers. Taxis. Noise. People. John Lennon said that New York is the capital city of the world – and it certainly feels that way.

But in the centre of this exciting, noisy, polluted city there is a place to find peace and quiet. A short walk from busy Fifth Avenue in Manhattan you'll find Central Park. Central Park is the green heart of New York City and over 25 million people come here each year to escape the city. People run, swim, climb or simply sit and read a book in the huge park's different scenery. And it's not just for people. Lots of rare birds have made their home in the park and there are legends of big cats hiding in the dark trees.

Although it looks completely natural, the park is man made, created over 150 years ago. Frederick Law Olmsted and Calvert Vaux designed the park at a time when the city was a very crowded, dirty and unhealthy place to live. They wanted to make a place where rich and poor people could find fresh air in the dirty city.

It does the same job today. As a friend of mine always tells me, "Life in New York would be impossible without Central Park"

Tess: Wow! Really interesting. We'll hear from another one of our people next time. Or if you'd like to write in and tell us something interesting about your city or town, we'd love to hear from you.

Section 5: Your turn

Tess: Now we're going out into the street to listen to 'Your Turn'

Ravi: In this part of the show, we go out into the street to find out what people think about our question of the day. And today we're going to ask a question about celebrities - like film stars, actors, singers – who promote charities and ask people to give them money or aid. At the beginning of the show, we listened to Zara from Bristol talking about Angelina Jolie. Zara talked about Angelina Jolie's work for charity. And nowadays, lots of famous people – celebrities - do the same. But is it a good idea? So today's question is ... 'Is it a good idea for celebrities to do work for charity?'

Tess: Hmm. 'Is it a good idea for celebrities to do work for charity?' Interesting question. Let's listen to the answers.

Voice 1: I think it's a good thing. People don't want to listen to boring politicians but everyone likes celebrities so they listen to what they have to say. When Bob Geldof and Bono organised Live8 a few years ago, everybody was talking about how to end poverty in Africa. My little brother was only twelve years old, but he was talking about it. That can't be bad.

Voice 2: I hate it. The celebrities only want publicity, and they want us to think that they're really nice people, you know, they care about the world, they care about poverty, so they can sell more records. But it's a big lie. They're not interested in poor people or the charities at all.

Voice 3: Why is it a problem? The charities need money, and if celebrities can help them to get more, then what's wrong with that? I think that some celebrities only want publicity, but, well, who cares! The charities get some money, that's the really important thing.

Voice 4: If you think for example, Angelina Jolie or George Clooney is really cool, then you want to do the same things that they do. So you might give to charity too because you want to copy your favourite star. I think it's a good thing. Helping people is cool nowadays.

Voice 5: I think the celebrities do it because they copy other celebrities. Everyone's doing it nowadays – it's the fashion to do work for charity. I hate it. These film stars make millions of dollars for a film and live in houses that cost millions of dollars, and travel in private planes and stay in expensive hotels. And then they go and visit some 'poor people'. It's ridiculous.

Ravi: OK, some interesting answers there.

Tess: Hmm. Do you have an opinion about this question? We'd love to know what you think. 'Is it a good idea for celebrities to do work for charity?' Or do you have an idea for a question that we could ask on Your Turn?

2. Song Meeting

Section 1: Superheroes – The Script

All the life she has seen
 All the meaner side of me
 They took away the prophet's dream
 For a profit on the street

Now she's stronger than you know
 A heart of steel starts to grow

All his life he's been told
 He'll be nothing when he's old
 All the kicks and all the blows
 He won't ever let it show

'Cause he's stronger than you know
 A heart of steel starts to grow

When you've been fighting for it all your life
 You've been struggling to make things right
 That's how a superhero learns to fly
 Every day, every hour, turn the pain into power

When you've fighting for it all your life
 You've been working every day and night
 That's how a superhero learns to fly
 Every day, every hour, turn the pain into power

Oh-oh, oh, oh

Oh-oh, oh, oh

All the hurt, all the lies
 All the tears that they cry

When the moment is just right

You see fire in their eyes

'Cause he's stronger than you know

A heart of steel starts to grow

When you've been fighting for it all your life

You've been struggling to make things right

That's how a superhero learns to fly

Every day, every hour, turn the pain into power

When you've fighting for it all your life

You've been working every day and night

That's how a superhero learns to fly

Every day, every hour, turn the pain into power (power, power, power,

Every day, every hour turn the pain into power

(Power, power, power, power)

Every day, every hour turn the pain into power

She's got lions in her heart

A fire in her soul he's a got a beast

In his belly that's so hard to control

'Cause they've taken too much hits, taking blow by blow

Now light a match, stand back, watch them explode

She's got lions in her heart

A fire in her soul he's a got a beast

In his belly that's so hard to control

'Cause they've taken too much hits, taking blow by blow

Now light a match, stand back, watch them explode

When you've been fighting for it all your life

You've been struggling to make things right

 Every day, every hour, turn the pain into power
 (Power, power, power, power) Ooh, yeah
 Whoa (power, power, power, power)
 Every day, every hour, turn the pain into power

Section 3: Skyscraper – Demi Lovato

Skies are crying
I am watching
Catching tear drops in my hands
Only silence
Has an ending
Like we never had a chance
Do you have to Make me feel like
There is nothing left of me
You can take everything I have
You can break everything I am
Like I'm made of glass
Like I'm made of paper
Go on and try to tear me down
I will be rising from the ground
Like a skyscraper
Like a skyscraper
As the smoke clears
I awaken
And untangle you from me
Would it make you
Feel better
To watch me while I bleed
All my windows
Still are broken
But I'm standing on my feet
You can take everything I have
You can break everything I am
Like I'm made of glass
Like I'm made of paper

Section 4: Heal The World – Michael Jackson

(Think about um, the generations
 And ah, say we want to make it a better place for our children
 And our children's children so that they, they
 They, they know it's a better world for them
 And think if they can make it a better place)
 There's a place in your heart
 And I know that it is love
 And this place it was brighter than tomorrow
 And if you really try
 You'll find there's no need to cry
 In this place you'll feel there's no hurt or sorrow
 There are ways to get there
 If you care enough for the living
 Make a little space
 Make a better place
 Heal the world
 Make it a better place
 For you and for me, and the entire human race
 There are people dying
 If you care enough for the living
 Make a better place for you and for me
 If you want to know why
 There's love that cannot lie
 Love is strong
 It only cares of joyful giving
 If we try we shall see
 In this bliss we cannot feel
 Fear of dread, we stop existing and start living
 Then it feels that always
 Love's enough for us growing

Make a better world
So make a better world
Heal the world
Make it a better place
For you and for me, and the entire human race
There are people dying
If you care enough for the living
Make a better place for you and for me
And the dream we were conceived in will reveal a joyful face
And the world we once believed in will shine again in grace
Then why do we keep strangling life
Wound this earth, crucify its soul?
Though it's plain to see, this world is heavenly
Be god's glow
We could fly so high
Let our spirits never die
In my heart I feel you are all my brothers
Create a world with no fear
Together we cry happy tears
See the nations turn their swords into plowshares
We could really get there
If you cared enough for the living
Make a little space
To make a better place
Heal the world
Make it a better place
For you and for me, and the entire human race
There are people dying
If you care enough for the living
Make a better place for you and for me
Heal the world

Make it a better place
For you and for me, and the entire human race
There are people dying
If you care enough for the living
Make a better place for you and for me
Heal the world (heal the world)
Make it a better place
For you and for me, and the entire human race
There are people dying
If you care enough for the living
Make a better place for you and for me
There are people dying
If you care enough for the living
Make a better place for you and for me
There are people dying
If you care enough for the living
Make a better place for you and for me
You and for me (for a better place)
You and for me (make a better place)
You and for me (make a better place)
You and for me (heal the world we live in)
You and for me (save it for our children)
You and for me (heal the world we live in)
You and for me (save it for our children)
You and for me (heal the world we live in)
You and for me (save it for our children)
You and for me (heal the world we live in)
You and for me (save it for our children)

Section 5: We Are The World – Michael Jackson

There comes a time when we heed a certain call
When the world must come together as one
There are people dying
And it's time to lend a hand to life
The greatest gift of all

We can't go on pretending day by day
That someone somewhere will soon make a change
We're all a part of God's great big family
And the truth, you know
Love is all we need

We are the world
We are the children
We are the ones who make a brighter day
So, let's start giving
There's a choice we're making
We're saving our own lives
It's true we'll make a better day
Just you and me

Send them your heart so they'll know that someone cares
And their lives will be stronger and free
As God has shown us by turning stone to bread
And so we all must lend a helping hand

We are the world
We are the children
We are the ones who make a brighter day
So, let's start giving

There's a choice we're making
We're saving our own lives
It's true we'll make a better day
Just you and me

When you're down and out
There seems no hope at all
But if you just believe
There's no way we can fall
Well, well, well
Let's realize that a change can only come
When we stand together as one

We are the world
We are the children
We are the ones who make a brighter day
So, let's start giving
There's a choice we're making
We're saving our own lives
It's true we'll make a better day
Just you and me

3. Podcast Test

a. Section 1: “You know that restaurant you went to?”

Nama :

No. Absen :

Tess: Hello! And welcome back to the second series of the LearnEnglish Elementary podcast. This is podcast number two of this series and we're your presenters. I'm Tess ...

Ravi: ... and I'm Ravi, hello.

Tess: Right, then. Today we've got ... what have we got Ravi?

Ravi: Hang on a minute, I've _____ (1) what I wanted to ask you. How was your birthday? Tess: Oh, well, it was great, thanks, Ravi: We had a nice meal.

Ravi: Good, good. Well, you know that restaurant you went to? The French one? Tess: Yeah.

Ravi: Was it any good?

Tess: Yeah, it was. Yeah. Really good. Bit expensive, but the food was _____ (2), you know.

Ravi: You'd recommend it then?

Tess: Are you thinking of going?

Ravi: Yeah, I might. I _____ (3) I might take someone.

Tess: Oh yeah? Anyone I know?

Ravi: Hmm? No, I don't think so. When you say 'expensive', was it, like, really expensive or just expensive expensive.

Tess: It was quite a lot actually. I think we paid about sixty pounds each – including the wine. Ravi: Sixty quid! Erm. That is a bit more than I wanted to pay. Hmm.

Tess: Well, it was my birthday. I'll tell you what though. There's an Italian restaurant just around the corner – people say that's quite good. Can't remember the name, but...

Ravi: Oh, that one. I know it. I don't fancy that, though. I went there once and the pasta was worse than the stuff I cook at home...

Tess: Well, you are a great cook, Ravi ...

Ravi: Well, thanks, Tess. But this was bad. The pasta was _____ (4) and the meat was really tough. Over-cooked. Tasted like rubber. Horrible. And I didn't feel too good the next day...my stomach – you know...

Tess: Say no more.

Ravi: Any more ideas? I wanted somewhere a bit special this time, a bit different.

Tess: Well, there's a new Japanese place round the corner. It looks nice...

Ravi: I'm still a bit of a _____ (5) with Japanese food. I'm never sure what to order – I don't know what it all is. I feel a bit stupid in Japanese restaurants...

Tess: I know what you mean. And you don't want to look stupid in front of... Who did you say you were taking?

Ravi: I didn't.

Tess: Should I just get on with the podcast?

b. Section 2: I'd like to talk about...

Tess: And there'll be Carolina too, of course, we'll see how she's getting on, but, as usual, we'll start with 'I'd like to talk about'. This is the part of our show when someone tells us about something important to them - a hobby, a person, a place, a thing – whatever.

Ravi: Yes, something that you know a bit about and would like to share with all of us. And today we've got Liam: here in the studio – Hi Liam.

Liam: Hi Ravi, hi Tess.

Tess: Hi Liam

Ravi: Just _____(6) yourself first, you know, tell us a bit about yourself before we start.

Liam: OK. I'm Irish, I'm from Dublin, I'm twenty- two, and I'm training to be a teacher.

Tess: Dublin's a long way away from London!

Liam: Yes, I'm in London for a while, visiting family. So I thought I'd come into the studio and talk about Albert Einstein.

Ravi: Wow. Albert Einstein.  $E$  equals  $mc$  squared. Are you a _____(7) by any chance?

Liam: No, I'm not. I love science though – and that's what I want to do in a way - I'm training to be a physics teacher. That's why I love Einstein – I think he's a brilliant example for kids, he really shows them that science isn't boring. It's about using your imagination. Einstein was a real 'artist' – he was a science superstar. Everyone has this image of him as an old man with grey hair, but he was young when he made his most important _____(8) – he was in his twenties. Not much older than me in fact.

Tess: I heard he was a really bad student at school. Is that true?

Liam: I'm not sure it is. I think he was a clever student – he always got good _____ (9), but he hated school as a teenager. He thought the lessons were boring – he used to skip school and study the things that he wanted to learn about. He thought that he didn't learn anything at school and I think that a lot of kids today will understand how he felt.

Ravi: And are you going to explain relativity and  $e$  equals  $mc$  squared?

Liam: Ha! How long is the podcast? No, I don't think so.

Ravi: Oh go on!

Liam: Well .... the most interesting thing for me about Einstein's theories is the stuff about time. Time isn't always the same – it goes faster or slower in different situations – it's relative. For example, if you put a clock on a _____ (10) that's travelling very fast, then the clock goes more slowly than a clock on earth.

Ravi: So, if I travel on a spaceship for thirty years, when I come back Tess will be an old woman and I'll still be young and gorgeous?

Liam: Well yes.

c. Section 3: Quiz

Tess: Right. Now, it's time for the quiz. Hello, Eva.

Eva: {on phone} Eva {Ey-va}

Tess: Sorry – Eva. Sorry.

Eva: That's OK, everyone says it wrong.

Tess: Is it French?

Eva: No, it's from _____ (11). My mum's Slovak.

Tess: Ah, OK. But you're in Scotland now, right?

Eva: That's right. In Coatbridge. Near Glasgow.

Tess: OK. What do you do there?

Eva: I'm doing my A levels.

Tess: Right. You're still at _____ (12) then. What subjects are you doing? Is it hard work?

Eva: I'm doing English, French and History. Yeah, it is hard work, yeah.

Tess: But do you enjoy it?

Eva: Yeah, I suppose so. It's OK {nervous laugh}

Tess: Good. OK then, are you ready to play? We're going to play '10 things'. It's a new one but I'll tell you what you have to do, OK.

Eva: OK

Tess: Right. I'll give you a word – a verb – and you have to try to _____ (13) of ten things that go with that word. For example, if I say 'play', you have to say ten things you can play – the piano, golf, a game ... like that. You've got a minute and you have to try to get ten things. You get the idea?

Eva: Yep.

Tess: OK then, let's go. Eva you've got one minute to tell us ten _____(14) you can tell

Eva: Tell a story. ... Tell the truth. Tell a lie. ... Tell the time..... Tell the difference between two things. ... Tell someone .... erm ... tell someone a story ... oh no, I've already said that, erm....tell someone..... tell someone off. ... Tell.... tell....tell ..ah tell right from wrong? erm tell apart – like tell two people apart.

Tess: That's eight. Come on, two more.

Eva: Argh! Tell, tell, tell .... tell someone to do something?

{buzzer sounds}

Tess: Ahhh. Nine. Bad luck Eva. That's a really tricky one. You did really well.

Eva: {laughing} Argh. It's really stressful.

Tess: I know! Thank you for playing. You did do really well. Let's check them: Tell a story, tell the truth, tell a lie, tell the time, tell the difference, tell someone off, tell right from wrong, tell apart and tell someone to do something. Nine. Good _____(15), Eva. We'll send you something nice.

Eva: Thanks. Bye!

Ravi: Bye! Right. Don't go away anyone. We've got your thoughts on shopping and we've got more from Carolina right after this.

d. Section 4: Your turn

Tess: Right. Now it's time for Your Turn. This is the part of the podcast when we go out and ask different people what they think about something. We ask a different question in every podcast.

Ravi: Yes. And this time the question is 'Shopping – love it? Hate it?' or 'It depends'?. Let's hear what people said.

Voice 1: I hate shopping. I hate shopping in supermarkets, I hate shopping in the market, and I hate shopping for _____ (16), I especially hate shopping in the sales. In fact, I would prefer to do all my shopping online.

Voice 2: I love it if I'm in the right mood for shopping, but I can't stand shopping in really busy places and I hate it when the music's on too loud, and I also hate pushy shop assistants.

Voice 3: Well, it depends on the kind of shopping, really, if it's clothes shopping or buying a _____ (17) for someone I quite enjoy it. If it's shopping just for daily foodstuffs I do find that a bit boring, in fact lately I've taken to using the Internet and just doing online shopping. I find that much easier.

Voice 4: I love shopping. I love when shopping happens, you know you didn't plan it but then you just see the perfect thing and you just have to buy it. I love it when it just happens. I love shopping and _____ (18) money.

Voice 5: Shopping – love it or hate it? I don't understand it. You should only go shopping when you need to go shopping to buy food or clothes, for example, but shopping for pleasure is just beyond my understanding. I can't possibly understand why people could possibly enjoy such an activity.

Tess: What do you think Ravi? We do call you 'the king of shopping'.

Ravi: You know I love shopping Tess. Clothes, CDs, DVDs, buying presents for people, stuff for the house. Everything really.

Tess: Even the _____(19)?

Ravi: Ah, well, perhaps not so much. But I don't mind it. What about you?

Tess: I hate supermarkets. No, I'm not a big shopping _____(20) really.
And what about our listeners? Why don't you write in and tell us what you think about shopping?

Section 5: Carolina

Ravi: OK then, time to catch up with Carolina: again. Remember that Carolina is a student from Venezuela who's come to England to study at university. We've been following her on the podcast as she studies – and relaxes – in Newcastle. Last time she was shoe shopping – let's see what she's up to this time.

{knock on a door}

Emily: Hello?

Carolina: Hi, Emily. Can I come in?

Emily: Yeah, come in, it's open.

Carolina: Hi. Can I ask you about something?

Emily: Of course you can. What's up? Here, I'll just _____(21) this so you can sit down.

Carolina: It's this. You know that essay I did? The environment and land resources one? I just got it back.

Emily: OK

Carolina: Oh Emily. Fifty five percent. That's really _____(22) isn't it? I don't know what I should do.

Emily: Whaddya mean?. I mean it's not great but, you know, it's not awful. It's your first essay and it's in your second language. Are there any comments on it?

Carolina: Yeah, she's written loads. I got the bit about the land use patterns completely wrong. I don't think I really answered the question. Oh, Emily, I feel terrible.

Emily: Oh come on, it's not that bad, it's a pass, you know. It's not a disaster.

Carolina: It is! Fifty five percent! I never got fifty-five percent in Venezuela. I've never had less than eighty percent for anything.

Emily: Really? Look, I got sixty two for my first essay and I'm quite pleased with that.

Carolina: Really?

Emily: Yeah, I mean, it's not _____(23) but it's fine. You never get eighty percent or something like that unless you're, like, a total genius or something.

Carolina: Is that true? I don't know – it's all very different here. I feel a bit confused. At home, we had to learn more things – remember them. Here you have to do lots of research and read things and say what you think in front of lots of other students.

Emily: Yeah, that can be scary, can't it? And then they all ask questions - with the _____ (24) listening. It makes you feel a bit stupid sometimes, doesn't it? You think all the others are geniuses, and you're the worst in the group!

Carolina: So you feel stupid too? Oh, that makes me feel much better!

Emily: Well, thanks! But yes, it's just as difficult, even if English is your first language! Don't forget it's the first year for everybody – and it's really different from school. Listen, who's your tutor? Why don't you have a chat with him?

Carolina: Her. Stafford. Helen Stafford.

Emily: Well let's have a look. I'm already logged in. Stafford with two 'f's? You're _____ (25) to go and see your tutor you know. It tells you on here what times they'll be around..... Right, here she is.

{knock on a door}

Helen Stafford: Come in. Ah, Carolina. How are you?

Carolina: Fine, thanks. Have you got a minute?
