I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to confirm the submission of my manuscript titled "The Legal And Human Rights Challenges Of Interfaith Marriage In Indonesia" to Journal of Law and Sustainable Development. I believe that the research presented in this manuscript aligns with the scope and interests of your esteemed journal.

Below are the key details of the submitted manuscript:
Title: The Legal And Human Rights Challenges Of Interfaith Marriage In Indonesia
Manuscript ID (if applicable): 1020 (3067/3068)
Corresponding Author: Muhammad Faisal Hamdani
Affiliation: Universitas Islam Negeri Sumatera Utara
Contact Email: fai.ham74@uinsu.ac.id
Contact Phone: +62 85210903688

I have carefully read and adhered to the guidelines provided by Journal of Law and Sustainable Development for manuscript preparation and submission. The research reported in this manuscript has not been published elsewhere, and it is not currently under consideration for publication in any other journal.

We have also submitted the edited journal article and paid the publication fee on September 29, 2023 (proof attached in our dashboard and this email) after the journal was accepted (information in our dashboard at 2023-09-21 10:56 AM). We were informed that the journal would be published within 10 working days after payment, but our article has not been published until now.

I kindly request you to acknowledge the receipt of this manuscript at your earliest convenience. Should there be any additional information or documentation required, please do not hesitate to contact me. I appreciate the time and effort invested by the editorial team in reviewing and considering my submission. I am confident that the research presented in this manuscript will contribute meaningfully to the academic discourse in law development.

Thank you for your attention to this matter, and I look forward to the opportunity to contribute to Journal of Law and Sustainable Development.

Sincerely,
Muhammad Faisal Hamdani
