Dear Sukiati,

The corrected parts should be marked in red on the manuscript.

And I have noticed that Literature review is missing. Is this the whole manuscript?

Also, the "author's response to reviewers" paper is missing too.

e.g.

Reviewer 1 's comments

Author's response (corrections)

1) 1)

2) 2)

Reviewer 2's comments

Reviewer 3's comments

Please send the revised manuscript(corrected in red) and the author's response paper by April 17, 2023.

Thank you

Dear Sukiati,

I have your manuscript proofread by our copy editor.

Please check thoroughly all the memos by our editor and adjust the revision on the attached file.Note for reference

- 1) Page number and DOI should be included in the references
- 2) If the articles cited in the references are non-English, please add (In _____) at the end
- 3) Please check your names, affiliations, and bibliography once again
- 4) Report from Internet Source

Letter from the copy editor

As you will see, a significant amount of rewriting was required throughout, and some issues with citations lacking references and references that are not cited in the text have been highlighted.

There are also a few places where I have suggested the author be clear about what they are trying to say. It would be especially useful to clarify the general family situation (i.e., the number of wives and the order in which they married the husband) in the case of Uwoh and Bunur.

Use of the word 'research'

Explanation

The word 'research' is an uncountable noun and is almost never used in the plural form. If it is important to convey the idea that there are multiple items of research, use either 'researchers' or 'studies.'

Please send me the revised manuscript by October 20, 2023.Please kindly note that the revision would be no more available after 25th of November.

Dear Sukiati,

Hi, I have received your revised manuscript.

I appreciate your cooperation in the proofreading process. We checked the corrections.

There are few things to be clarified in the manuscript, so please kindly check the revised manuscript (attached file).*Green: have already revised from Asian WomenYellow: need author's checking I don't think you have adjusted all the memos and made corrections especially from page11 to page19*Please see the attached file, and revise the manuscript and send it back to us by October 22, 2023.

~~that~~ Moreover, those who practice polygamy are sometimes considered symbols of piety (salih men and salihah women (~~Rizka Ahmadi et al., 2022). The majority of the Indonesian community is against~~)(Ahmadi, Rofiqoh, & Hefni, 2022), [A1][MOU2] though most Indonesians remain opposed to this custom (Nurmila, 2008)

[A1]The meaning here requires clarification. I think the intended meaning is that, far from being viewed with contempt, people in polygamous marriages are seen as examples of piety, and this is how I have rewritten the sentence, but it still leaves the words salih and salihah unexplained. Please check my rewriting and also consider translating the unfamiliar terms.

[MOU2]What you rewritten is OK. I agree with you. the word Salih means pious man and Salihah is pious woman.

editor's note: For clarity and better flow, I suggest changing the structure of this sentence"

Most Indonesians remain opposed to polygamy (Nurmila, 2008). However, those who practice this custom are sometimes considered symbols of piety (Salih men and salihah women) (Ahmadi, Rofiqoh, & Hefni, 2022).

-->you said you agree with the editor, but you haven't revised the sentence.

Relationship between Wives

The first wife and the other wives in ~~polygamy marriages~~ a polygamous marriage have a harmonious relationship[A1][MOU2]. A [A1]This is a very broad statement given we are only examining two marriages. Please consider this:

"The first wife and the other wives in the two polygamous marriages examined here have a harmonious relationship"?

[MOU2]Okey, I agree with your consideration --> but you haven't changed the sentence

page 16

. They believe that Allah is ~~Just~~, just and ~~tend to~~ accept whatever situation they are in [A1] [MOU2], thereby bringing peace and tranquility to their hearts

[A1] Do you mean to say here that they should accept whatever situation they are in? If so, please consider the change:

"They believe that Allah is just; thus, they accept whatever situation they are in, bringing peace and tranquility to their hearts."

[MOU2] Okey, I agree with your consideration. Thank you.. --> are you going to change this sentence?

page 16

when compared to ~~the~~ alternatives ~~associated with~~ such as divorce or widowhood [A1]. A [A1] Is widowhood really an "alternative" to marriage?

I prefer it be deleted --> if you prefer dealing the word, please remove it from the text

page 17

a) [A1] This directly contradicts the earlier comment on the previous page ("preliminary research reported that polygamous families tended to have a lower socioeconomic status than monogamous families").

a)b) What exactly is meant by a "quality" life? Please consider using a different and more specific term here.

what about using "level lives" [MOU2] --> if you want to change the words, please change it.
